Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. 1331 Connecticut Avenue. My darling Alec:

I have only a few minutes to write you by Maria. Daisy's paper this morning was a great success, she was perfectly self-possessed, very graceful and ladylike and spoke with great ease, distinctness and clearness. As Mamma said, who you know is chary of praise. It was a very good paper, extremely well read. I was proud of her, and echoed the remark of one lady to another what a sweet little thing she is. She wore a pretty blue and white dress with gray hat and blue flowers, and pointed out things and was just lovely. Elsie's ring is a very fine one, a large sapphire with diamonds on either side $450,00 she is delighted and I think you would like it. The party was perhaps all the more pleasurable that it was too cold to go outside as well as too damp. Maria will tell you all news. She is waiting now. I love you and love you.

Yours, Mabel.
